

Main Theme

love story as old as time, about the present, set in the future.

Design Concept

The design of the home should incorporate people's fantasy about future world - absurd and non-realistic. It is about the excitement and fear that people face when they are about to step into a new era. The Lemmond's home is upscale and minimalist, and it feels like an uncomfortably perfect space.

a combination of Y2K, vapor wave and retro-futurism.

The Memory Disc

Each memory is disc is manufactured from the same company. You can locate the company logo and their own barcode on the cartridge.

The barcode could a total new design or a QR code. If the audiences scan the QR code, they could be directed to a specific website which can be an easter egg of the film.

The Smartphone

clear smartphone just like how you imagined it to be back in 2000s.

We could simply make it by cutting out shapes on acrylic sheet.
